Letter Took Beating

Editor The Gazette:

My letter of July 3 on the refusal of passport to China to Justice William O. Douglas, finally published--what was left of it--on Aug. 1, took an awful beating in the editing. I can appreciate the space problem but one whole paragraph was omitted that was so important to the purpose and continuity of the letter that I think it should have the forum privilege. It was the following paragraph, continuing reasons for the refusal:

"There is the apparent succumbing of Secretary Herter, no doubt under great pressure from the White House, the Pentagon and remnant Dulles regime in the State Department, to the Eisenhower-Dulles policy of maintaining, at all costs, the festering crisis over the world supposed to irritate and threaten and "contain" the Kremlin--China and Berlin being the most virulent and highly prized." For documentation [illegible] Story Behind Quemoy" in the Saturday Evening [illegible] February--presumably to brag about the "cleverness" of Allen Dulles' cloak-and-dagger C. I. A. outfit, but actually exposing its vicious provocateur activity.

Certainly the people of this nation cannot act with force and intelligence unless they know the truth about Washington's deliberate contribution to "brinkism." It is most fervently to be hoped that events of the past few days, particularly the exchange of visits between the heads of government of the United States and USSR, [illegible] a [illegible] from the "brinkism" policy.
